

That I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your corn, and your wine, and your oil.

Deu. 11:14

“First rain,” יורה: divine emanations, instructions of Light, the germination of the seed.

Ps. 126:6, He that goes forth and weeps, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Heavenly Father, look upon our family and accept our request for forgiveness. Extend your great hand with mercy and grace, bring healing to those calling upon your name.

We pray that our spiritual family receive the embrace of your loving arms. May the Holy Spirit restore health from the divine pattern in the soul to all levels of manifesting the Image and the surrounding field of Light.

James 5:7, Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, and has long patience for it, until he receives the early and latter rain.

As we count the days, Adonai Yod-Heh-Vod-Heh, Yahveh Elohim, we unite our hearts and minds with you and give great thanks for the abundant flow you have brought forth in the divine teachings, pictographs, heavenly constructs, and Word of God that feeds us daily.

We are witnesses of your work, in your glory and in your Resurrection. May we not be pallbearers for the dead but bringers of the Good News as you call your people to Life, Mehayyai Hametim.

Sha'are Orah, may the gates of Light be opened, the gates of consciousness, gates of Overself, gates of Christ, gates of Glory. HaShem—the name you have given. Amen.
